Junior High Music Students,

I want to send this letter home to remind you of our final concerts and events for the year. Please see the schedule below for band and choir report times on the day of the event. If you have questions please do not hesitate to ask me and I will answer them and try my best to work around any conflicts. I want these year end concerts to be a success for all and a chance for the students to show the hard work they have accomplished this year!
